

BOTH FACTIONS CLAIM VICTORY

La Follette And His Followers Expect To Dictate The State Platform.

SO DO THE DAVIDSON AND CONNOR

People-Conferences Held By Both Sides With View Of Controlling Affairs On September Twenty-Fifth.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 16.—Republican leaders in Wisconsin have outlined their plans for the "candidate convention" which will be held in Madison September 25, in accordance with the provisions of the primary election law. The influences headed by Senator R. M. La Follette have held a conference at the senator's country home, Maple Bluff, three miles from here, and the influences headed by Governor James O. Davidson and State Chairman W. D. Connor have conferred at the state fair in Milwaukee.

All Under Cover.
Neither side has given out its program, and the Davidson-Connor people declare that their meetings at the Plankinton hotel and the state fair grounds in Milwaukee were only suggestive in character and developed no other program than that the platform to be adopted shall be a positive one, in favor of carrying forward the reforms inaugurated by the republican party in this state during the last four sessions of the legislature.

Connor's Letter.
Supporting this information, Col. O. G. Munson, private secretary to Governor Davidson, exhibits a letter from Mr. Connor in which he says that the platform must not dip into federal politics, nor be allowed to carry the weight of personal praise for any man in particular, but be a plain, vigorous statement of the party's pledge to carry forward the work of reform. Reference to personal praise doubtless means that any attempt on the part of the La Follette people to have adopted an endorsement of the senator's action in the national congress will be met with opposition.

The La Follette Party.
At the La Follette conference at Maple Bluff Saturday, there were present besides the senator, his private secretary, John J. Hannan, Tax Commissioner Nils P. Haugen, a former congressman and close political advisor of La Follette; Secretary of State Houser, who was defeated for nomination for a third term; I. L. Lenroot, ex-speaker of the assembly and defeated candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination; A. T. Rogers, chairman of the Lenroot campaign committee; A. H. Dahl, republican nominee for state treasurer, and others.

Very Secret.
The meeting was held in the utmost secrecy and none of those present will admit that any program was adopted, but this is not fully accepted. It seems certain that Senator La Follette believes he can control the convention and thereby make up for the defeat of his candidate in the recent primaries.

A WORD OF WARNING.
Uncle Sam—"You fellows in future want to be careful about the trouble you stir up or I'll put my hat over you."

TWO STATE FAIRS ARE ON THIS WEEK

Industrial and Agricultural Shows with Race Features in Kentucky and Washington.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Louisville, Ky., Sept. 17.—The varied industries and boundless resources of the Blue Grass state are illustrated in a comprehensive manner by the myriad of exhibits that go to make up the Kentucky state fair, which opened today. The departments of live stock, horticulture, women's work, manufactures, agriculture, etc., were thrown open to the public at 9 o'clock this morning and the crowd that thronged the grounds for the annual success of this year's exhibition. Though all departments are well filled with high-class exhibits, the live stock display this year is worthy of particular note. An excellent program of races will be carried out during the week.

North Yakima, Wash., Sept. 17.—The Washington state fair, for which the board of managers has been preparing for months past, opened today under most favorable auspices. As regards both exhibits and amusement features the exhibition this year is above the average, while the attendance figures likewise promise to establish a new record. The fair will continue until the end of the week.

MANUFACTURERS ARE TOLD OF FOOD LAWS

Board, Formulating Regulations for Enforcement of Statutes, Begins Public Hearings.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Sept. 17.—The pure food board, which is formulating regulations for the enforcement of the pure food law recently enacted by congress, began a series of public hearings today to give the food manufacturers and others interested an opportunity to present their views as to the necessary regulations. Problems connected with the enforcement of the new law will be discussed and the members of the board expect to get many practical suggestions from the manufacturers. Such questions as what constitutes an original package and "export package," flavoring, coloring, the use of glucose in confectionery, harmful and harmless adulterants, breakfast and proprietary foods and patent medicines will be taken up. A large number of patent medicine manufacturers have applied to be heard at the meetings of the board. This fact has given rise to a belief that the makers of patent medicines, who exerted every effort to defeat the food and drugs act in congress, intend to fight to the last ditch until the law is actually put in operation.

As to Insanity. The hearing of the case of Mrs. Doran of Edgerton was commenced this afternoon in Judge Sales' court. She is being examined in a jury trial as to whether or not she is insane. Gottle of Edgerton and John Fisher of this city are the attorneys.

DOMINION UNIONS HOLDING CONGRESS

Twenty-second Yearly Session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Victoria, B. C., Sept. 17.—The bones and sinews of organized labor in the Dominion are well represented at the twenty-second annual session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, which opened in this city today. All sections of the Dominion are represented in the congress, which will be in session about a week. In addition to discussing the usual topics and transacting the business relating to the affairs of the organization, the congress this year is to be given added interest by the consideration of the subject of labor's participation in politics. The example of organized labor in the United States in taking an active part in the present political campaign has attracted much attention among the trades unions of Canada. Opinion as to the wisdom of following this example, however, differs among the representative leaders of the Canadian labor unions and a spirited discussion is likely to follow the introduction of the subject in the congress. Many are heartily in favor of independent political action in an effort to increase the number of labor's representatives in the Dominion parliament and provincial legislatures. Others are inclined to oppose the plan.

FIRST DAY OF ODD FELLOWS CONVENTION

Sovereign Grand Lodge Session at Toronto—Cantons in Prize and Exhibition Drills.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 17.—The opening day of the 82d annual convention of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was a busy and enthusiastic one. Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning the delegates, representing the Canadian provinces and every state and territory of the United States, assembled in the legislative chamber of the Parliament building. The visitors were cordially greeted by Lieutenant Governor William Mortimer Clark, and other representatives of the province of Ontario and the city of Toronto. R. E. Wright of Pennsylvania, grand sire, responded to the welcomes, after which the Sovereign Grand Lodge representatives proceeded to business. This afternoon the prize drills by Cantons began at Exhibition park. Another feature of the day's program was a large reception in honor of the visiting Rebekahs.

AMERICAN CONSUL A VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Government Representative to Austrian City Shot While Out Hunting.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Marshalltown, Ia., Sept. 17.—S. C. McFarland, United States consul at Reichenberg, Austria, here on a vacation, was injured today while hunting and will not be able to return to his post for two or three months.

SHAW PROCEEDS TO THE SHOW-ME STATE

Will Be Followed by Watson, Fairbanks and Cannon and Missouri May Go Republican.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 17.—Having stumped Tennessee in the interest of H. Clay Evans and the republican congressional candidates, Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw crossed the Mississippi today and carried the campaign into Missouri today. Opening with speeches in Hannibal this afternoon and Moberly tonight, Secretary Shaw will spend a fortnight in this state, delivering from one to half a dozen speeches each day. That Missouri republican leaders are sincere in their belief that they will be able to accomplish great things in this state in November is evidenced by the efforts they are making to put up a hot campaign. Secretary Shaw is but one of the "big guns" that will take part in the oratorical bombardment. Others to be heard, according to present plans, are Congressman Watson of Indiana, Vice President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon. Meanwhile the democrats express confidence in the success of Champ Clark and Judge De Armond at the approaching election.

DIES IN HIS WIFE'S ARMS, SUDDENLY

Beloit Man Shoots Himself in Spirit of Mischief—Amusing Felloes Boarders.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Wis., Sept. 17.—Seemingly in a spirit of mischief toward his wife and a friend, Charles Parker, aged 25 years, placed a revolver to his head last night and shot his brain out. He had been drinking, it is said. Parker and his young wife boarded on Fourth street. He came home late and, after taking a revolver from his bureau, was handling it in a way so reckless that a friend remonstrated with him, whereupon Parker said: "Why are you afraid; I have no intention of pointing the gun at you; so I will point it at myself, and snuffing the action to the world, he placed the muzzle under his ear, and before his friend or his wife could grasp his hand there was a report, and Parker fell dead in his wife's arms."

He and his wife came to Beloit from Canada a few months ago. His relations with his wife were the happiest. He was a painter by occupation.

Machinists and Boilermakers Decide to Strike for Higher Wages and Begin Trouble.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Decatur, Ill., Sept. 17.—Seventy machinists and boilermakers on the Wabash railroad struck today for higher wages. The strike will affect the entire system.

At the Shops.
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 17.—Four hundred boilermakers and machinists of the Wabash road struck today for higher wages.

CANADIAN COMMERCE AND MANUFACTURING

Business, Representing All Branches, in Thirty-fifth Annual Convention.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 17.—A notable assembly of business men representing all branches of commercial activity in British North America assembled in Winnipeg today for the opening of the thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' association. Several hundred individuals and firms actively interested in commercial enterprises are represented, the delegates coming from the Maritime provinces, from British Columbia and from all other parts of the Dominion. The provinces of Quebec and Ontario are represented by a delegation of several hundred. Among the guests of honor who will be heard at the convention banquet Wednesday night is Richard Gigg, the commissioner appointed by the imperial board of trade to investigate the trade relations between the mother country and Canada. Several representatives of the Dominion government will be among the speakers. The forenoon was occupied with meetings of the various sections of the association, among them, the woolen section, agricultural implement section, and subscribers to mutual fire insurance companies. This afternoon the main body assembled to listen to the reports of officers and various committees. The formal opening of the convention takes place tonight when the delegates assemble in the large hall of the Royal Alexandra hotel to listen to greetings from the premier of Manitoba, the mayor of Winnipeg and others. The greetings and responses will be followed by the address of the president of the association, C. C. Ballantyne of Montreal.

TYPHOID FEVER HAS INVADDED BAYFIELD

Northern Wisconsin City Has Trouble Due to Bad Water—Many Cases Reported.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Bayfield, Sept. 17.—An epidemic of typhoid fever due to bad water with fifteen cases, and more existing but not reported has broken out in the city.

Plumbers in Session.
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 17.—Several hundred delegates from various parts of the United States and Canada were present today at the opening of the annual convention of the United Association of Plumbers, Steam and Gas Fitters. The sessions will continue several days, during which time numerous questions of importance to the craft will be discussed and acted upon. President William Merrick of Boston called the gathering to order in Labor Temple.

Marriage Licenses. Ellen L. Olson, Darion, to William R. Carper, Bradford; Edith L. Roe, Lima, to Harvey E. Kyle, Lima; Lizzie A. Carver, Bradford, to Peter L. Wiedmer, Bradford.

Paid their Fines. Charles Mumm, Jerry Murphy, and James McGinnis were brought up in Judge Fifield's court this morning for being drunk and disorderly. Mumm was fined $2.10, Murphy $3.10, and McGinnis $2.10.

BITTER FIGHT IN TWO PARTIES IN YORK STATE

Bossism And Respectability Arrayed Oppositely In Both Republican And Democratic Ranks—Prima-ries Tomorrow.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Sept. 17.—Politicians are on edge in anticipation of the primaries tomorrow. With Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, struggling for political existence, Mayor McClellan battling to exterminate him, with Herbert Parsons, backed by President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins, striving to rid the local republican organization of Odell and Quigg, and Odell and Quigg fighting with all their strength and political ingenuity to destroy Parsons and reform influence in the party, the battle of the primaries may fairly be described as one of the bitterest, as well as the most important, in the history of local politics.

In eleven districts out of the thirty-five in Manhattan and the Bronx, there are democratic contests. In eighteen districts there are fights in the republican party. All the democratic fights are bitter, and in every one the issue is clearly drawn—Murphy against McClellan. Every asset available to every leader, is being pressed into service and every political trick on the calendar is being resorted to.

In Brooklyn the contests are fully as interesting and important as those in Manhattan, and the borough is in a high fever of political excitement. The control of both the democratic and republican organizations is at stake, and it is possible the action of both state conventions next week may depend upon the results of the primaries.

On the republican side, Timothy L. Woodruff, is fighting for the control of the organization, of which he has been leader for nine years. He is being assailed by Michael J. Dady, Brooklyn representative of the Odell-Platt-Quigg alliance. If Woodruff wins the delegates to the state convention will be for Governor Higgins, while if Dady wins they will be for Charles W. Hughes for the gubernatorial nomination. If Mr. Hughes is not a candidate they will be for whoever former Governor Odell selects as the party's choice.

On the democratic side, Senator "Pat" McCarron is fighting to retain the leadership he wrested from Hugh McLaughlin three years ago, and which he has held only after such bitter contests at the primaries that his followers have had little energy left to fight for success at the polls. If he wins the delegation to the state convention will go opposed to the nomination of W. R. Hearst, and unless he forfeits the use of his name will present Judge William J. Gaynor as his candidate for governor.

The opposition to McCarron is led by Sheriff Michael J. Flaherty. If the Flaherty faction wins the delegation will go to the state convention in favor of the nomination of Hearst.

So chaotic are the conditions in Brooklyn that it is almost impossible to forecast the result of tomorrow's battle with any degree of certainty. The indications are that Woodruff and McCarron will retain their leadership, although the former may lose enough districts so that his influence may be weakened.

SILVER JUBILEE OF THE CARPENTERS AND JOINERS

Strong American Labor Organization Holding Biennial Convention—No Settlement With Rival.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 17.—The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, one of the strongest labor organizations of America, assembled here today in fourteenth biennial convention. After addresses and responses had been delivered the convention adjourned until tomorrow. The body will be in session two weeks, but after today all sessions will be executive. The sessions will be occupied almost wholly with routine business. Nothing out of the ordinary is slated to come up for action at this convention. The longstanding fight between the Brotherhood and the Amalgamated society of carpenters will come up for consideration, but nothing in the way of a definite settlement of the differences between the two organizations is expected.

The present convention of the Brotherhood is regarded by the members as of more than ordinary importance, as it marks the twenty-fifth anniversary or silver jubilee of the organization. It was in August, 1881, that a meeting was held in Chicago, that resulted in the permanent organization of the brotherhood of carpenters.

At the meeting thirty-six delegates were present, representing 11 cities and 12 local unions, with a total membership of 2,000. The cities represented were St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Buffalo, New York, Washington, D. C., Detroit, Cleveland and Kansas City. After a four days session it was decided to form a permanent union of carpenters to include Canada as well as the United States.

The growth of the organization has been remarkable. The officers report to be presented to the present convention show that the 12 local unions of twenty-five years ago have increased to nearly 2,000 local unions, with 165,000 members in good standing. The jurisdiction of the organization extends over the entire United States, Canada, Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands. In the quarter of a century of its existence the Brotherhood has paid out several million dollars in sick and death benefits.

There is no contest on for officers at the present convention, but a lively contest is expected among the applicants for the next convention. Memphis and several other cities are bidding for the gathering.

BANNER YEAR IN
TOBACCO FIELDS

EDGERTON REPORTER GIVES FIGURES OF SALES.

RESUME OF THE SITUATION

Prices. Good—Crops. Good—Prosperous Times and Better Conditions.

Without question this will prove the banner year for the tobacco growers of Wisconsin, says the Edgerton Reporter. Nothing like it in yield per acre, quality of leaf or money returns was ever obtained in later years by our farmers. The nearest approach to the money values was obtained in 1894, when tobacco sold from first hands at extraordinary prices, but even that record is likely to be broken
this season because average prices rule higher. This is prosperity with a big P. The harvest is now so well along that the crop is very certain to be secured without any serious drawbacks and it has gone into the curing barns in almost perfect condition. The weather since the harvest started has been so uniformly suitable for the rapid curing of the hanging leaf that the early cure is already past all danger in shed cure and is showing remarkably fine colors and a thinness
and finish that betoken a splendid binder tobacco. With the growth and cure so clearly determined and the price so well established there is small danger that the above predictions will not be fulfilled.

Big Acreage

With an acreage in the state that is most likely to stand around 60,000 acres and a yield that promises to crowd four cases of wrappers and binders per acre. If the present prices continue it will cost to pack
this crop close to $50 per box, so
to move the crop will require nearly $8,000,000—almost double the amount required in later years to handle the crop of this state. This is a large amount of money to dump into the tobacco growing districts covering only
a limited portion of a few counties, and will add materially to the bank accounts of the producing class throughout these sections. Rock county's share of this will run close to $3,500,000 this season, a sum far in excess of the amount ever before realized for this crop.

Fair Division

The filler grades, too, are commanding higher prices from growers this year than ever before, due to an active competition among the scrap manufacturers. The scramble to secure the low grades a year ago did not materialize until after the packers had gained control of the crop and the growers got but a small portion of the advances.

Riding Less

While the rush of buyers to the growing districts is subsiding, enough
riding is still being done to hold up
the market and what transactions
that have taken place during the week
have been made pretty well towards top figures. Well posted buyers claim that the market has now become so well established that the balance of the crop will be taken at almost the going prices, where desirable selections may be made. There are some small late fields that so far have not appealed to the buyers. We append another list of sales, must look good to the growers at least.

Ideal Conditions

The harvest has proceeded now for three weeks under ideal conditions
and while the great bulk of the crop
is now secured there is a good deal
of tobacco still standing in the fields,
much of which is becoming overripe.
So many growers find that more shed
is needed, and the scarcity of help
all tends to prolong the harvest.
There could scarcely be any improvement on the curing weather since the crop commenced going into the barns
and never before has tobacco cured faster. Not a cloud has so far appeared to darken the prospects of a successful tobacco year.

The market for cured leaf continues uneventful. Sampling of the 1905 packing continues to be the order of the day and the results are uniformly satisfactory.

Shipments out of storage equal
only the needs of the manufacturers
whose supply is kept in this market
about 3000s for the week to all points.

CORN COBS HAVE A

SPECIFIC VALUE

Alcohol Can Be Made from Them—
Saving for the Farmers.

Rock county corn cobs have a value and the manufacture of alcohol
may be revolutionized as the result of experiments which have been completed by the department of agriculture. The officials of the department have succeeded in making alcohol
from corn cobs and cornstalks at a cost so small that they believe it will prove of large commercial value and develop into a new industry. It is proposed at first to manufacture the alcohol as a by-product in connection with corn-canning factories. In investigations which the department is making at Hoopston, Ill., it has been proved that the large quantities of corn cobs which every year go to waste can be converted into alcohol
in sufficient quantities to justify the erection of a distilling plant.

Make Experiments at Hoopston

The department sent two chemists
to Hoopston to make experiments at a large cannery there. They have succeeded by simple methods of fermentation in getting a yield of eleven gallons of alcohol from a ton of green cobs and by similar methods in getting six gallons of alcohol from a ton of green cornstalks.

A statement concerning the experiments by one of the scientists of the department reads:

"At different times during the last twenty-five years the department has conducted experiments along the same line, but with common field cornstalks. These tests show that there are 200 pounds of fermentable substance in a ton of green field cornstalks, which will yield about half of their weight in absolute alcohol. In round numbers a ton of stalks will produce 100 pounds of alcohol or 200 pounds of proof spirits. As a gallon of alcohol weighs nearly seven pounds
there should be fifteen gallons of alcohol to a ton of stalks."

Large Saving May Result

"Not only are the cobs a waste product but the irregular and spoiled ears of corn as well. Hand labor is as yet employed in the husking and all ears are put in, as the waste is based upon a measure. As the measures of ears are cupped upon the conveyors the ears unfit for use are culled as they go by. These culled ears also are waste. The expense of bringing them to the point where they are cast aside is quite as much as the perfect ears. The addition of the corn on the cob adds further to the possibilities of alcohol obtainable
from a ton of cobs and will have its influence in bringing the quantity to a greater figure."

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL NOTES

The school is fairly well attended,
all rooms being occupied except one.
This one is waiting for new desks,
which have been ordered but are slow about getting here. Painters and others are still working, the finishing touches being slow work.
Contributions for the past week are as follows: A. C. Campbell, $2; Mrs.
Anna Kirby, $2; Mrs. Plumb, $2; Mrs.
Stephen O'Connor, $5; Mrs. J. E. Gok-oy, $5; a friend, merchandise value, $10; Miss Delia Brazzel, $1. Again
the Sisters return thanks to their many friends.

SISTERS OF MERCY.

WAS THE BRIDE OF

BLIND PIANO TUNER

Miss Thelma Anderson of This City
Married to Former Employee of State School.

Miss Thelma Anderson of Janesville was married in Rockford Saturday to William Hunsy of that city. The bride was a resident of Janesville,
both a student and as an employee
at the Wisconsin State School for the blind. He was well known here and since removing to the Forest City has become a familiar figure there, attracting considerable attention by his ability to go about unaided. He is never accompanied by a pilot and
his only means of locating crossings,
streets cars and buildings, and escaping
from rushing automobiles and horses is his cane and quick ear. Miss Anderson has a host of friends here who extend congratulations.

EXHIBITION OF SAFE
HITTING YESTERDAY

Rockford Eagles Defeated Janesville
Birdies by Score of 15 and 12.

Janesville baseball fans were yesterday afternoon treated to an exhibition of safe hitting in the game between the Rockford and Janesville Eagle teams. Of the eighteen men that played all but two secured hits
and there were three on either team who waited out two batters. Anderson, Ward and Karl were the heavy batters for Janesville and Karl besides his two-base swat negotiated
four singles, while at bat five times.
The local team was held down, however, and allowed but a dozen runs,
while the Forest City boys made fit-
teen, seven in the eighth inning.
Schmidt and Anderson were the local batters.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

BEGINS NEXT WEEK

University Players Make Ready to Start the Season's Work
Shortly.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis.—Football practice at the University of Wisconsin will not be started until a week from next Wednesday, the day on which the fall semester of the university begins. Some candidates have indicated a desire to come here for informal preliminary training, after the manner of the work being done under the direction of Coach Stagg at Chicago, but the Badger authorities
will not tolerate this being determined to carry out to the letter; the intercollegiate agreement against preliminary training. This refusal to allow the candidates to come and prepare themselves for the season's work, however, does not involve any word of protest on account of the assistance being rendered by the Chicago coach to his prospective football artists. Athletic authorities at Madison profess to be indifferent at what other universities may do in their interpretation of the intercollegiate agreement on "game football." Wisconsin is seeing to it for herself that football be confined within rather narrow limits of mildness. In fact there is no determined inclination on the part of the students here to press the football season for it is well known that the faculty will tolerate no trifling and the first appearance of anything savoring of overzealousness
in the gridiron sport the faculty might abolish the game entirely. Football is in a state of innocuous desuetude
here; afraid to raise its head. Director Hutchins has arrived from Syracuse and is planning the season's work. He will do much of the coaching himself. Only two members of last year's team are available, Gel-bach and Johnson. Gelbach will probably be captain, although Melner
was elected to that place last year.
He will not return, however, because of the decapitation of the game. The change in the football situation here
is illustrated by a remark made by former Graduate Manager C. H. Kilpatrick, now representing a sporting goods house of Chicago, who was here
this week to provide Director Hutchins with supplies. Mr. Kilpatrick said:

"Mr. Hutchins is an excellent football coach, but with the faculty dead
against the game he will have a hard time to produce a good team. However, he will have his own way and not be bossed by a bunch of professors and grafters. It will be mild business compared with what it was a few years ago when players held up the management for money on the eve of championship games. It would be interesting for Mr. Hutchins if he could get a taste of the administration of Vanderboom, Remm, Findlay
and the other old stars."

Vanderboom, Remm and Findlay are names famous on former Wisconsin
eleven, and names inseparably connected with the causes which led the Wisconsin faculty to shake up football of the western universities and place it at Wisconsin at least in a place where it will hardly assume the importance of basketball and bean-bags as a college sport. Nevertheless Director Hutchins is hopeful of developing a creditable team with new material and the best members of last year's freshman eleven. He has announced the schedule for the coming season as follows:

October 20—North Dakota, at Madison.

October 27—Alumni, at Madison.

October 15—Lawrence or Beloit, at Madison.

November 2—Jowa, at Madison.

November 10—Illinois, at Urbana.

November 17—Purdue, at Madison
or Milwaukee.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

F. O. Ambrose, the well-known boiler manufacturer of Jefferson, Wis.,
was in the city last week looking
after his business here.

New Attractions Booked: Edwin Arden who is now appearing in the drama "Told in the Hills" in Chicago,
will come here with his play on Oct.
17. Manager Myers has also booked
"The Love Route," a musical success
now enjoying a run at the Garrick,
Chicago, for Sept. 27.

Many Want Citizenship: A throng
of applicants for citizenship papers
visited Clerk of Court Ward Stevens office today. The number of the last one issued at three o'clock was 75.
The new law goes into effect a week
from Saturday.

Tennis Meet at Dallas

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 17.—A large number of tennis enthusiasts thronged
the courts of the Dallas club at Lake Cliff park today at the opening of the regular annual tournament of the Texas State Lawn Tennis association. The play will continue four days. Judging from the large entry list and the promptitude of officials and players in the opening contests
the tournament will go on record as the most successful ever pulled off
under the auspices of the Texas association.

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers
the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claim then made regarding the wonderful curative properties
of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers
and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents at any drug store
made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more recited we have space to publish only a few of the latest but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmelier, La Crosse, Wis.: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes
to my friends who have also had the same benefits."

From Jacob Anthony, Port Murray,
New Jersey: "I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 6 years, and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right
a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets."

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: "I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same
good results."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

KICKERS' KOLUM

To the editor: It seems too bad to spoil a hero story; to give people a thrill and then follow it up with a jolt, really seems unkind, but truth must not be hidden in a box car. Talking about thrills and jolts; however, there was one man in the case who had his thrill and jolt in a realistic fashion, and he was the brakeman on the runaway cars, who knew that he was approaching an open derail and couldn't stop. That was where his thrill came in, and when he found himself fired bodily out into the tall grass, with a broken lantern, that was his jolt, but not so bad but that it might have been worse, or there would have been something broken besides his lantern.

The writer of this correction is an experienced interlocking towerman,
and knows whereof he speaks when he asserts that not one of the stories of the "bare presence of mind" and heroism of towermen, which appear in the newspapers from time to time, is founded upon fact. In the present instance, Mr. Phillips, the hero, was not within a hundred miles of Janesville when this accident occurred, and the operator on duty did not know that the runaway cars were approaching the tower until he heard the crash.
The route had been given to the interlocking car, and people who are informed on the subject, know that at railway crossings where an interlocking plant is in operation, it is impossible to give the "route" or right-of-way, to more than one road at the same time. In other words, "clear signals" are closed and "clear" signal displays on one road, all the derails
on all the other lines are open and automatically locked in that position.
An electric device, locks the derails,
open and locks the semaphore or signals, which govern approaching trains,
in the "danger" position, and also locks the closed derails so that the leverman cannot change the route until the train having the right-of-way has passed over, and by contact with the track connection of the electric lock, released the derails so that they may again be moved by the leverman.
The only way that the leverman can take the route away from one line and give it to another after he has closed
the derails and displayed a "clear"
signal, is to go down stairs and push
a button the wall, which is purposefully placed in a remote corner behind the machinery where a man cannot get at it quickly. By the time the leverman has done this and returned to the levers, an approaching train
could be over the crossing, so you see that even a farmer fresh from the hay field could not cause a collision at a railway crossing between trains on different roads, where the interlocking system is in operation. Hercules himself could not jerk the route away from one train and give it quickly to another, because muscle and rare
presence of mind cuts no figure in a case like this.

Before The Footlights.

The original great cast, including James Lackaye, Ray L. Royce, Randolph Currie and all the others, will be seen here shortly in Fred Wright's great pastoral play, "York State Folks," whose triumph in the large cities, like Chicago, Boston, New York, St. Louis, etc., has been remarkable. In these cities mentioned the

Notwithstanding, that there are quite numerous good things that have become staple favorites in the amusement men within the last year, there is one that stands pre-eminently among the successes and that is George Ade's delightful "College Widow" which is announced for the Myers Grand on Tuesday, Sept. 18.

LOUISE ROTTER, WITH "THE COLLEGE WIDOW" HERE TUESDAY

demand for seats was such that the orchestra had to be put under the stage. "York State Folks" did what no other dramatic attraction ever before accomplished in Boston—it kept the Majestic Theatre open and crowded all summer long, in spite of the hot weather and the attractions of the seashore and mountains. The coming engagement will be the farewell performance in this city prior to its tour in England.

The demand for this typical American comedy this season is so great that some cities have been necessarily sighted in the itinerary arranged by Manager Henry W. Savage, so that this city is fortunate in being located on the line of travel chosen for Mr. Savage's fine organization—a company which, by the way, is said to have been selected with greater care than any Mr. Savage has yet sent us.

Samuel W. T. Lanham.

Governor of Texas.

THREE KILLED BY DYNAMITE

Explosive Is Put in Crevice Before Hole Had Cooled Off.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 17.—A terrible dynamite accident happened Sunday afternoon at a railroad camp 18 miles from Kenora, down the Winnipeg river.

Three men were blown to pieces, fragments of their bodies being picked up 40 feet away.

The names of the victims are: Neil E. Longhill, foreman of the gang; Lewis Peterson and Charles Hanson.

It appears that the men had sprung a hole, and before it had cooled off had commenced to load it, with the result that the charge prematurely exploded.

Mexican Cotton Crop.

Mexico City, Sept. 17.—The cotton crop of the country will in all probability be 15 to 20 per cent less in quantity this year than last owing to the inundation of lands in the Laguna district. The loss will be about $2,000,000.

Twelve Hurt in Car Crash.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 17.—Three street cars, one loaded to the guards with passengers, collided here; more than a dozen passengers and car employees being injured. Three of the passengers are not expected to survive.

Big Ship Is Aground.

Midway Island, North Pacific Ocean, Sept. 17.—The Pacific mail steamship Mongolia, a sister ship of the Manchuria, is aground on Midway reef. The ship is being lightered and her passengers are being landed safely.

Small Girl Victim of Duel.

Sandersville, Ga., Sept. 17.—Anne Alford, 13-year-old daughter of T. J. Alford, a lumber dealer, was accidentally killed while Deputy Sheriff Heath and an escaped negro convict were engaged in a pistol duel.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA

The real cause for Eczema is the presence of humors and sour acids in the blood. These impurities get into the circulation because of imperfect action of those members of the system whose duty it is to collect and carry off the refuse and waste of the body. As this effete matter lies in the system it ferments and generates acid humors which are absorbed into the blood, overcharging this vital fluid with acid. In its effort to keep the system healthy, the blood throws off the humors through the pores and glands of the skin, causing this tormenting skin disease. The escape of acids and humors through the pores and glands irritates and burns the skin, producing pustules filled with a clear, sticky fluid, which dries in crusts and patches causing the most intense itching, and often pain. The trouble is in the blood, and S. S. S. is the remedy for Eczema, because it is a real blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, removes all acids and humors and makes the blood rich, pure and healthy. When S. S. S. has done this the symptoms pass away, the blood is cooled and the disease cured permanently. Nothing acts so promptly or pleasantly in all skin diseases as S. S. S., and it is at the same time a fine tonic to the entire system. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free.

SELF GOVERNMENT

The people of Cuba are demonstrating that the question of self government is a serious proposition, and one with which they are not able to cope. It is not at all surprising that such is the case, for when the reins of government were placed in the hands of the little republic the outcome was regarded as an experiment. Internal strife is the cause of the present uprising and graft as well as corruption is charged against the administration. The people have organized to demand the removal of their president and propose to accomplish their purpose by force if necessary. The United States government has marshaled a fleet and is on the ground ready to interfere if necessary in the interests of American life and property.

The question of the independence of Cuba at the close of the Spanish-Cuban war was regarded as a serious question, for the situation which now confronts the republic was anticipated. It was argued at the time that it would be infinitely better for the people to annex the island to the United States, but to this proposition the Cuban would not submit, and so the people are learning by experience that self government is a large undertaking.

The solution of the Cuban question means in the end, annexation, and the sooner this is done the better it will be for the people. The capital represented on the island is largely American capital, and the sanitary and other improvements are due to American enterprise and ability.

The question is being asked, "If the Cuban is not capable of self government what about the Filipino?" and what is to be the solution of the problem of the far eastern islands. Instead of the ten years that was suggested when the islands came into our possession a century will be required to educate the people and prepare them for the responsibility of governing themselves.

The spirit of humanity which gave to the United States possession of the Philippine islands as the result of the most humane war that was ever waged by any country, is a commendable spirit, and the argument is used that this spirit should dominate until the islands are civilized and Christianized.

But the fact remains that the islands are too remote to permanently become a part of the United States, and while the government should control one of them for all time, as a coaling station, it will be found desirable when the proper time comes to transfer the balance to Japan.

The yellow races belong by themselves and while civilization and Christianity are important to them it is a question as to whether the effort to civilize and Christianize should extend to the point of assimilation and the mixing of blood. The United States is already struggling with one race problem and it will be ample time to take on another when that is solved.

The question of the Philippine tariff is perplexing and yet it is simple compared with many other questions which will demand solution should the islands become permanently annexed to the United States, and an independent government would not last as long as the Cuban experiment.

THE PEOPLE'S REPRESENTATION

The common council is elected by the people for the purpose of representing them in conducting the various departments of city government. They sustain the same relation to the people that the directors of a stock company sustain to a corporation. They are expected to transact the business of the city intelligently and for the best interests of the municipality. The aldermen are selected by a majority of voters in their respective wards and they are empowered to speak for this constituency as a unit.

There are some questions presented to the council which are difficult of solution, because the members are not certain as to the trend of public sentiment behind them, and there are other questions where the sentiment is so clear and well defined that the course of action is easy to determine. The interurban franchise question to be acted upon tonight belongs to the latter class.

question took definite form and was presented to the business men by Mr. Clough not a whisper of opposition was heard. The business men were a unit on the question as well as the heavy property-owners of the city. This sentiment is stronger today than at that time and it submitted to a vote of the taxpayers 90 per cent of them would favor it.

The members of the council know this to be a fact and they also know that they are elected to serve the people and the best interests of the city, and yet some of the members propose to defy public sentiment because a few disgruntled taxpayers who have no interest in the city outside of a house and lot object to a car track in front of their premises. This class of objectors are not entitled to consideration. If they were in the majority the city would have no use for a charter in a dozen years and the streets would be better adapted to pasturage than traffic.

With a modern equipped street railway and frequent service the value of property will advance on streets over which it is operated and if the noise is annoying it will be easy to sell out at a good price and move to quiet quarters.

The business interests, the manufacturing interests and the farmers want the interurban. The council should size up the opposition and see what it weighs in the balance.

The state of Ohio is honeycombed with this class of roads and all over the state farm property, as well as city property has been enhanced in value. The growth and prosperity of Janesville means prosperity to all its interests and increased value to Rock county farms. The question is up to the council and if the voice of public sentiment is regarded the franchise will be granted.

When phonetic spelling was the fad in Wisconsin a few years ago John Hicks of Oshkosh was a strong champion, but his friends laughed him out of countenance by addressing him as "John Hix."

Mr. Connor assures the party that the platform soon to be adopted will be a republican platform. This is gratifying and it is to be hoped that Mr. Connor will be able to carry out his good intentions.

Maine prohibition may finally defeat the republican party, but it will continue to be a burlesque to the state, so long as it remains on the statute books.

The interurban line to Madison will be worth more to Janesville than the Rockford line. "Let us have it," says every business man in the city.

Classified Advice

(By Venable Haystack.)

Now all ye good people of classified town,

Don't think that I'm always gaupin' around;

A feller can't help seein' what's goin' on.

An' he's sure to take notice when anything's wrong.

Now a real nice, young feller so I told,

Who wanted a wife and ain't very bold.

Has advertised in the daily paper, Says I to myself what a foolish caper.

For some bold hussy who ain't worth a cuss

Will see that ad and answer it too, And likely as not afore the year rolls round

A bullet-hole in his head will be found.

Now, I always believed in advertisin', And sometimes it is most surprisin' To see what bargains a feller will git By advertisin' a little bit.

But when it comes to choosin' a wife, If you want one to love you all your life,

There ain't no use to advertise, You must seek her of the God of the skies.

For He is the only one I know, Who has such blessin's to bestow, And He will guide all men aright, Who will trust in the power of His might.

Now all young men who would marry well

And thus escape an earthly hell, Just take a good old friend's advice

And you want have to pay the preacher twice.

"Bawling Platitudes"

Milwaukee Sentinel. The caustic and matter of fact New York Sun takes a characteristic whack at the estimable but rather superfluous and "preachy" gentleman, Gov. Folk of Missouri.

The governor has just been (for the twentieth time or so) ringing the changes on that unctuous text of his, "We are on the threshold of a great moral awakening." Whereat the Sun tartly retorts that, "As a matter of fact the country is suffering from insomnia owing to the bawling of platitudes by professional reformers."

With all due respect for Mr. Folk's efficient work as a prosecutor of a well entrenched gang of public thieves, the Sun's hit is a palpable one. We are all getting an overdose of flagrant cant and platitudes. To a public that is growing bored to the point of nausea by the Chaudhism, pharisaism and political Cockostocky that rolls its oily tide from the lips of blatant "professional reformers," a little of that sort of plain talk from "Truthful James" should be refreshing at the present time.

Meanwhile the serviceable, effective reform workers are not hawking their own praises in the vote market.

AUBREY BOUCICAULT;

"THE GREATER LOVE"

Splendid Actor and Splendid Company

Appeared Here Saturday Night in Play Eminently Worth While.

"The Greater Love" A four-act drama by Ivy Ashton Root, founded on episodes in the life of the great composer, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, (1756-1791) the 150th anniversary of whose birth has just been celebrated at Salzburg and Munich with seven symphonies by some of the world's greatest artists. Presented at the Myers theatre Saturday evening, Sept. 15.

Cast of Characters

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, the composer, Aubrey Boucicault, the hero, Herr Schoenfeld, his enemy, Franz Sussmeyer, his pupil, George Leach, Albert Lange, an actor, Samuel D. Merrill, Herr Bolter, of the court theatre, Vienna, Theodore C. Diers, Signor Bondini, manager of the theatre at Prague, Herman Hirschberg, Herr Albrechtsberger, in Vienna, Herr Kleinberg, Herr Schuck, Herr Hofler, musicians and friends of Mozart, Henry Nesbit, Clarence White, La Mandini, formerly Guidetti, Aloysia Weber, Constanza Weber, Sophie Weber, sisters, Mary Peters, Kathleen Kinsella, May Abbey, Musicians, singers and attendants.

There will be other excellent offerings at Janesville's theatre this season—many of them—which will gratify the onlooker's love of rhythm, sonorous phrases, sprightly dialogue, and tense situations. The swash-buckling knight of old and his modern prototype, the hero in football togs, will make the heart beat faster or raise mists before the eyes with deeds of valor, self-sacrifice, and devotion. But none, it may be safely predicted, will have a more poignant appeal to the finer sympathies and that pure idealism which glorifies spiritual victory at the expense of material defeat and lifts the poet and composer above the builder of empires, than the beautiful little drama founded on the life of Mozart which was presented here Saturday evening.

Aubrey Boucicault, son of a great father, has brought to his role of the altruistic, debt-burdened "Tone King," the deep understanding of a true student of character and the artistic touch of a real artist. His Mozart is a genius and hence not like other men. Yet he strikes no attitudes and when the spot light, at the climax of one of the acts, discloses him at the harpsichord in rapt contemplation of some vagrant inspiration which the Muse has whispered to him as his fingers wandered over the keys, the spectator still sees life, not theatrical effect. Starving and pressed by creditors he surrenders without a murmur his opportunity to earn a few marks as Kapellmeister in order to gratify the vanity of the well meaning but weak old Herr Albrechtsberger who had once, defied him. In this and other incidents he discloses a carelessness of and disregard for self which is almost a fault, while in his repeated declarations that the world shall and must recognize his compositions, his unflinching confidence in self is revealed. But this is egotism only in its best sense, since Mozart chooses to regard himself as the instrument—a well qualified instrument, to the service of the Divine.

The most striking and remarkable test of the sincerity of his self-reverence and devotion to his art comes in the beautiful scene in the third act with La Mandini, the fair singer and devoted woman who has saved his opera from failure, once in Milan and a second time in Prague. It is a severe test of the credulity of the matter-of-fact onlooker, and he would hardly be willing to accept it were it not for the meek resignation to the accepted, inevitable (expressed in a peculiar far-away voice) with which the at-other-times spirited, woman receives her dismissal. Miss Grace Reals gives a charming delineation of the part. She might easily destroy the whole effect of the play were she to sustain to any considerable degree during the last interview that witchery exerted by her during the descent of the stairway.

The support was remarkably good throughout. Frederick Weber as the intriguing, sneering Herr Schoenfeld; Mary Peters as the faithless Aloysia Weber; Samuel Merrill as the envious cat's paw of Mozart's enemies, who repeats too late; Kathleen Kinsella, as the comforting Constanza Weber; May E. Abbey as the out-spoken and merry little sister, Sophie; F. Owen Meech as Albrechtsberger; and George Leach as the pupil, Sussmeyer, fill in the picture with perfect fidelity.

The incident of Sussmeyer copying the overture for the opera "Don Giovanni" from the master's chalk-found on the park benches had no foundation in history though it is a fact that not a note of it had been written on the night prior to the performance in Prague, Oct. 29, 1787, and that it was given without rehearsal. The real Mozart was rejected by Aloysia Weber and married her younger sister, Constanza, to his sorrow. Constanza is the eldest sister in the play. La Mandini is a pure invention of fancy. Mozart in real life as well as in the drama was a friend of the veteran, Haydn, though the latter's biographer records no instance of the latter's patron, about to dismiss him from his musical leadership, being so deeply moved on hearing one of his subsequent compositions as to cry out: "Haydn, why do you hurt me so!" Mr. Boucicault's splendid reading of this passage in the play thrills every listener.

The musical interpolations from Mozart's compositions are so deftly woven into the texture of the play that they not only do not intrude but assist in creating the atmosphere desired. Selections from "The Magic Flute," "The Marriage of Figaro," "Don Giovanni," and other operas are superbly rendered by the nine-piece symphony orchestra. The leader was several times compelled to bow acknowledgments. Saturday evening. Appreciation was likewise shown for the gorgeous scenic investiture and felt, if not made manifest, for the beautiful costumes.

It was a play eminently worth while. The audience was enthusiastic and there were several curtain calls after every act. It was a good sized audience, but there were too many vacant seats. If Janesville is to continue to be favored by these big Shubert attractions its people will have to get over the habit of waiting until Chicago has passed upon them.

INDIANA MINERS ON STRIKE

THREE THOUSAND MEN ORDERED TO QUIT WORK.

Trouble Occurs Over Discharge of Shots Before Time Fixed in Joint Agreement.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 17.—Orders were issued Sunday calling out all the men employed by the Vandavia Coal company. The action was taken by the district officials of the United Mine Workers of America, and was the result of the failure to adjust differences growing out of the discharge of three men at Vandavia mine, No. 5, near Linton.

The Vandavia company owns 30 of the best equipped mines in Indiana and employs 3,000 men, about one-fifth of the miners in the state.

The company held that the men were discharged because they fired shots before the time fixed in the joint agreement. It was stated by the miners that the mine was not in operation when the shots were fired. The executive board of the mine workers and the officers of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' association held a joint meeting here Saturday. The session was continued until early Sunday morning without reaching an agreement.

An executive session of the mine workers was held and telegrams were sent to all locals where the men are employed by the Vandavia company, ordering a suspension of work until the grievance is adjusted.

The Terre Haute agreement, provides for suspension of work at all the mines owned by a company when trouble exists at one mine.

MUCH INTEREST

IN THE OUTCOME

COUNCIL'S ACTION TONIGHT WILL BE WATCHED CLOSELY.

THE FRANCHISE QUESTION

Business Men Favor the Passage of the Present Franchise if Necessary to Secure Road.

Much interest is evinced in the city today over the possible fate of the interurban franchise at the hands of the council this evening. It is known positively that unless the franchise is granted with but slight alterations Mr. Clough will drop all negotiations for the proposed road. The business men are thoroughly aroused to the situation and feel that something radical is necessary to secure its passage. Public sentiment favors the road and the present franchise.

Same Old Story

The present opposition to the interurban is the same old story of fifty years ago, said a prominent business man today. "The city turned down the St. Paul road when they wanted to build their main line through Janesville, because they thought they had to come anyway. Well, they didn't, did they? Pass that franchise by all means. Let's try and catch up what we lost when we turned down the railroad a half century ago. This is the sentiment heard on every hand. Pass the franchise. The following is the opinion of a few more business and professional men whose ideas were not obtained last Saturday:

The Opinions

John Jones, grocer: "Put in four tracks if they want. Haul freight all day—trainloads of it. Let it stop outside my store, but give us the road."

R. M. Bostwick, merchant: "Pass that franchise by all means. Give them what they want. We want the road."

Arcturus Sutherland, bookstore: "Pass that franchise by all means. Give them what they want. We want the road."

James A. Sutherland, bookstore: "This talk against the interurban is absurd. Go to Rockford and see what interurbans do for a city."

Orion Sutherland, bookstore: "Pass that franchise as soon as possible and let the town wake up."

Francis Grant, lawyer: "The franchise should be passed at once. I favor an interurban, but think package freight only should be allowed."

Charles Kennerly, real estate: "That freight clause ought to be changed somewhat to protect future generations should the road decide to run regular trains over it."

Oscar Nowlan, contractor: "I favor the interurban franchise and would like to see it passed."

J. C. Kline, Y. M. C. A.: "Certainly am in favor of an interurban road between Janesville and Madison."

H. W. McNamara, hardware: "I only say we did need it."

W. H. Ashcroft, furniture: "The only thing to do is to grant it."

Dr. Fred Sutherland: "It is all right and we need it."

F. D. Murdoch, feed dealer: "I am in favor of anything to advance the welfare of the town."

J. L. Ford, clothing: "We certainly ought to have it."

Frank H. Baack, clothing: "Every such application turned down is another nail in the coffin of Janesville."

Chas. H. Snyder, plumber: "The company deserves what they ask for."

R. M. Vaughan, pastor First Baptist church: "It seems to me to be an excellent thing."

A. Lawson, wholesale grocer: "Best possible thing for the community."

Fred Vande Water Janesville Carriage Co.: "I would like to see it go through."

Fred Wilbur, Skelly & Wilbur, grocers: "We want it. But the company should agree to keep up the thoroughfare between and for a foot or so on each side of their tracks."

Will Taylor, grocer: "I'm in favor of it."

Herbert Holmes, dry goods: "Heartily in favor of the interurban."

F. L. Stevens, real estate: "Would be glad to have it come."

T. F. McKelvey, cigar factory and saloon: "Heartily in favor of the road."

W. J. Skelly, books: "For it with amendments to franchise. There should not be double tracks on some streets."

Frank George, candy: "In favor of it."

Will McCue, druggist: "A good thing for the city."

F. S. Wetmore, manufacturer barbers' supplies: "No question but that it would be a benefit to Janesville. I'm in favor of the freight clause."

T. F. Courtney, meats: "I don't object."

tend congratulations.

BELOIT CLAIMS LARGEST NUMBER

SEVEN JANESVILLE YOUNG PEOPLE START COLLEGE CAREERS.

UNIVERSITY TO GET FIVE

However Wisconsin Has the Largest Bower City Representation.

As usual fifteen or twenty young people of Janesville will enter colleges or universities this year as freshmen. Some have already gone to take up their studies and others are following. The last ones to depart will go about Friday of next week, when the annual exodus of University of Wisconsin students begins. Accompanying or rather being accompanied by them will be those who entered in previous years and will take up work as sophomores, juniors and seniors and even post-graduates.

Ten at Beloit College. Of the new delegation Beloit college claims the largest number, seven going thither today or tomorrow, while the University of Wisconsin gets but five. Usually conditions are the reverse, though these two institutions are seldom rivaled for the two first places. Those to enter Beloit are Earl Brown, who secured a free scholarship for the highest standings of the 1906 high school class; Grant Hyde, George McGee, Gladys Hodges, Ida Greene, Lucy Fox and Margaret Goodwin. The latter is a graduate of Girton hall, a girls' school near Chicago, but secured the largest number of her credits in the Janesville high school. Those who return to Beloit are Howard Greene as a Junior, Dorothy Whitehead as a Junior and Robert Jensen as a Sophomore.

University and Others. At the University of Wisconsin Elmer Dwyer, George Scarcliff, Chester Morse, Howard Sheward and John Harlow will take up Freshman studies. Among those to resume work there are Elizabeth Stoddard, Elisabeth McKee, Stanley Dunwiddie, Will Ryan, Harold Myers, E. Roger Higgins, Clayton Fisher, John Robert, Frank Fisher and Victor Anderson.

Other high institutions of learning will have Janesville representatives. In the law department of the University of Chicago Max Milmore is taking his first year's work. Ethel Hodge has entered Lawrence University of Appleton. Malcolm Jeffris is taking the entrance examinations at Yale, and Christina Galarraga and Adelaide Bullock will go to Milwaukee-Dowdner. Corn Soverhill will depart shortly for Oberlin, where she is studying in the conservatory of music. Stowe Lovejoy has gone to New Haven, Conn., to resume work in Yale. Fred Welch is at Northwestern University of Evanston, Ill., again this year. Ruth Fiffeld will enter Vassar college.

Normal and Preparatory. The two normal schools of Milwaukee and Whitewater have students from here. Among those at Milwaukee are Mary Collins, Ethel Fiffeld and Gardner Kaveledge and among those at Whitewater is Nellie Morris.

Preparatory and lesser colleges will also have Janesville young people enrolled. Wayland Academy of Beaver Dam probably has the largest number. Those attending are Irving Nelson, Donald Jeffris, Lester Dunlap, Orr Laughlin, Howard Bonesteel and Maude Rose. At Carroll College of Waukesha Leslie Harper and Frank Blair will be students. Emma Richardson is attending Sacred Heart convent in Montreal, Canada.

ENTERTAINED PARTY AT THEIR COTTAGE

Friends of John Harlow Were Guests on the River of Local People.

At the John Harlow cottage up the river several visiting railway clerks on the C. & N. W. railway were the guests of the four local clerks—J. I. Anthis, N. J. Harrington, Walter Morrison and H. L. Van Valen. The visitors were taken up the river in launches owned by their hosts. A most bountiful dinner and supper were served by Mrs. Van Valen and Mrs. Harrington and during the afternoon the young men played ball. In the evening the visitors were entertained at the home of Mr. Harrington and afterward departed at a late hour. Among those present from out of the city were: H. C. Shales, Nunda, Ill.; S. E. Capron, Madison, Wis.; E. B. Ristau, Walcott, Wis.; J. A. Hackett, North Freedom, Wis.

WHOLESALE CHICKEN ROBBERIES FRIDAY

Hundred Fifty Taken from Coog at Ayalon—Supposed Intruders Had Wagon of Ducks.

Chicken robbers are reported to have been at work recently in south-eastern Rock county and residents of that district are now taking precautions to prevent any further depredations. On Friday night, last, the coop of George Stott at Ayalon was raided and a hundred and fifty chickens taken. Mr. Stott has no clue to the identity of the thieves as he learned nothing of his loss until he arose Saturday morning. He believes, however, that the haul was the work of professionals as he was awakened during the night by the noise of a passing wagon loaded with squawking ducks. At the time he thought nothing of the incident.

WILL BE MARRIED ON THURSDAY AT NOON

Miss Agnes Shearer to Wed Mr. George Brownell—A Quiet Home Ceremony.

On Thursday noon, Miss Agnes Hume Shearer will be united in marriage to George Holmer Brownell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer, 108 Mineral Point avenue. Rev. J. W. Laughlin, of the Presbyterian church, will perform the ceremony. Miss Shearer is one of the society leaders of Janesville and the announcement of her coming marriage will be a surprise to her many friends. The groom to be is a graduate of the state university, was for several years employed at the "Hollister" and since early last spring has been connected with the Detroit Free Press as a special writer. He is a son of Mrs. Isaac C. Brownell of 164 Garfield avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Brownell will make their home in the Valencia apartments on Woodward ave., Detroit. The ceremony on Thursday will be very quiet, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present.

LETS CONTRACT FOR HITCHING STABLES

New Structure Will Cost in Neighborhood of Seven Thousand Dollars When Completed.

The contract has been let for the erection of the East Side Hitching Stables. It is to be built of Janesville sand-lime brick with a one-story front on Bluff street and two stories on North First street. Hilton and Sadler of this city are the architects and Ed. Donahue is the contractor. The contract price is about $7,000. The building will have entrances on Bluff street and on North First street. The second floor will be made waterproof so as to be flushed out every day with the entrances on Bluff street leading to that floor. Waiting rooms for men and women fitted up with modern conveniences will be put in the building together with two stores and an office. The building is to be built by the Janesville Investment Company, which is composed of about forty east side business men and property-owners. The idea of the company is that such a building will help business on the east side. Other buildings are in contemplation in the same neighborhood.

MACHINE COMPANY'S ENJOYABLE PICNIC

Annual Event of the Local Factory Was Held at Rockford on Saturday.

The picnic of the Janesville Machine Company, which was given last Saturday, was attended by over three hundred employees of the company and their families. The steamer was taken at Rockford and a ride taken up the river for five miles, returning to Harlem Park about noon. The afternoon was spent in games, dancing and a ball game. A team composed from the foundry played a team chosen from the rest of the shop and was defeated. The prizes were presented by the Machine Company. This is the seventh annual picnic given by the Company to its employees.

TOOK "SWEEPSTAKES" IN PLOWING CONTEST

Janesville Plows Again Win the Prizes in Contest at Wheatland, Illinois.

The Janesville Machine Company again took the Grand Sweepstakes prize at the Wheatland Plowing Contest in Wheatland Township near Aurora, Illinois. They also took first in the prize winners' class and first, second and third in the men's class. The Wheatland Plow Contests are an annual affair that have been held for the past twenty-five years by the farmers of that part of the country. Quality of the work, ease in handling, durability and the manner in which the plow leaves the furrow are all taken into consideration in marking the contestants. The plows are turned over to the judges who furnish the operators and the manufacturers have nothing to do with the actual test. This is the fifth time in succession that the Janesville Machine Company has won the Grand Sweepstakes Prize.

With Edged Tools

By HENRY SETON MERRIMAN
Author of "The Sowers," "Roden's Corner," "From One Generation to Another," Etc.

Copyright, 1904, by HARPER & BROTHERS

But at this moment the servant brought in coffee, saying in his master's ear that Miss Jocelyn had gone to bed with a slight headache.

During the three days that followed Durnovo's departure from Msala Jack Meredith and Oscar learned to know each other. These three days were as severe a test as could well be found, for courage, humanity, tenderness, loyalty, were by turns called forth by circumstances. Smallpox rages in Africa as it rages nowhere else in these days. The natives fight it or bow before it as before an ancient and deeply dreaded foe. It was nothing new to them, and it would have been easy enough for Jack and Oscar to prove to their own satisfaction that the presence of three white men at Msala was a danger to themselves and no advantage to the natives. It would have been very simple to abandon the river station, leaving there such men as were stricken down to care for each other. But such a thought never seemed to suggest itself.

The camp was moved across the river, where all who seemed strong and healthy were placed under canvas, awaiting further developments. The infected were carried to a special camp set apart and guarded, and this work was executed almost entirely by the three Englishmen, aided by a few natives who had had the disease. For three days these men went about with their lives literally in their hands, tending the sick, checking the despondent, frightening the cowards into some semblance of self respect and dignity.

And during these three days, wherein they never took an organized meal or three consecutive hours of rest, Joseph, Meredith and Oscar rose together to that height of manhood where master and servant, educated man and common soldier, stand equal before their Maker.

Owing to the promptness with which measures had been taken for isolating the affected the terrible sickness did not spread. In all eleven men were stricken, and of these ten died within three days. The eleventh recovered, but eventually remained at Msala.

It was only on the evening of the third day that Jack and Guy found time to talk of the future. They had

"In six months your go-downs will be full of you."

never left Durnovo's house, and on this third day they found time to dine together.

"Do you think," Oscar asked bluntly when they were left alone to smoke, "that Durnovo spotted what was the matter?"

"I am afraid that I have not the slightest doubt of it," replied Jack lightly.

Guy Oscar gave a contemptuous little laugh which had a deeper insult in it than he could have put into words.

"Umph!" he grunted. "It is rather disgusting," he said after a pause. "I hate dealing with cowards."

"And I with fools. For everyday use give me a coward by preference."

"Yes, there is something in that. Still, I'd throw up the whole thing if—"

"So would I," said Jack, turning sharply in his chair, "if—"

Oscar laughed, curiously and waited.

"If," continued Jack, "I could. But I am more or less bound to go on now. Such chances as this do not turn up every day. I cannot afford to let it go by. Truth is, I told some one who shall be nameless—that I would make money to keep her in that state of life wherein her godfathers, etc., have placed her; and make that money I must."

"That's about my size, too," said Guy Oscar, somewhat indistinctly, owing to the fact that he habitually smoked a thick stummed pipe.

"Is it?" Guy said of that. It gives us something in common to work for."

"Yes," Guy paused and made a huge effort, finally conquering that tactfulness which was almost an addiction to him. "The reason I gave the other night to you and that chap Durnovo was honest enough, but I have another."

I want to lie low for a few months, but I also want to make money. I'm as good as engaged to be married and I find that I am not so well off as I thought I was. People told me that I should have three thousand a year when the girl died, but I find that people know less of my affairs than I thought."

"They invariably do," put in Jack encouragingly.

"It is barely two thousand, and—and she has been brought up to something better than that."

"Um!" They mostly are. Mine has been brought up to something better than that too. That is the worst of it. "I believe implicitly in this scheme," said Oscar. "It is a certain fact that the men who can supply pure simlacine have only to name their price for it. They will make a fortune, and I believe that Durnovo knows where it is growing in quantities."

"I cannot see how it would pay him to deceive in this matter. That is the best way of looking at it," murmured Jack reflectively. "When I first met him the man thought he was dying, and for the time I really believe that he was honest. Some men are honest when they feel unwell. There was so little doubt in my mind that I went into the thing at once."

"If you will go on with it, I will stand by you," said Oscar shortly.

"All right. I think we two together are as good as any half breed sharper on this coast, to put it gracefully."

"During the ensuing silence Jack was apparently meditating over the debt of confidence which he still owed to his companion, for he spoke first and quite seriously, about himself, which was somewhat against his habit."

"I dare say you have heard," he said, "that I had a disagreement with my father."

"Yes, heard something of it," replied Oscar in a tone which seemed to imply that the "something" was quite sufficient for his requirements.

"It was about my engagement," Jack went on deliberately. "I do not know how it was, but they did not hit it off together. She was too honest to throw herself at his head, I suppose, for I imagine a pretty girl can usually do what she likes with an old man if she takes the trouble."

"Not with him, I think. Seemed to be, rather down on girls in general," said Oscar coolly.

"Then you know him?"

"Yes, a little. I have met him once or twice—out, you know. I don't suppose he would know me again if he saw me."

Which last remark does not redound to the credit of Guy's power of observation.

"They paused. It is wonderful how near we may stand to the brink and look far away beyond the chasm. Years afterward they remembered this conversation, and it is possible that Jack Meredith wondered then what instinct it was that made him change the direction of their thoughts."

"If it is agreeable to you," he said, "I think it would be wise for me to go down to Louisa and gently intimate to Durnovo that we should be glad of his services."

"Certainly."

By 7 o'clock the next morning the canoe was ready, with its swarthy rowers in their places. The two Englishmen breakfasted together and then walked down to the landing stage side by side.

"Take care of yourself," said Oscar gruffly as Jack stepped into the canoe.

"All right."

"And being back Durnovo with you," Jack Meredith looked up with a vague smile.

"That man," he said lightly, "is going to the plateau if I have to drag him there by the scruff of the neck."

FORMER GOV. BLISS' IS DEAD

Attack of Apoplexy in Milwaukee Sanatorium Proves Fatal.

Milwaukee, Sept. 17.—Former Gov. Aaron Thomas Bliss, of Michigan, died here at four o'clock Sunday morning at Sacred Heart sanatorium of apoplexy.

He came to this city for treatment last July, but returned to Saginaw in August. He suffered a relapse and came back a week ago.

Early Sunday morning, while returning from the bathroom, he was stricken with a second stroke while four feet from his bed and fell to the floor. His nurse aroused his private physician, who was asleep in an adjoining room, but the governor was dead.

His body was shipped to Saginaw in the afternoon.

Gov. Bliss suffered a stroke of apoplexy a year ago and had been in failing health ever since. Bright's disease developed, and also arterio-sclerosis, and during the past few months his death had been momentarily looked for.

Smothered in Oatmeal Bin.

Muscatine, Ia., Sept. 17.—Lysle Gladstone, aged 16, an employee of the Great Western Cereal company, while working at the plant fell into a bin of oatmeal and was smothered to death.

Orrin Guernsey, Esq., who has been absent from town more or less for a year past, on a mission to the Northwest Indian tribes, and late-ly to Washington to close up the affairs of the commission, returned last week, to remain at home.

Hon. James Sinton, Generals Bagley, Mansfield and several other prominent ex-confederates, are about to depart for England on official business. It is said that the rebels loudly boast of a new confederacy and declare that with England's help and the assistance of "My Policy," their design sought for during the last four years will be accomplished before the next Presidential election.

Florida news states that the Dry Tortugas Islands were fired upon by a strange craft bearing the Confederate flag, and Mr. Mudd, who is confined there, was seriously injured by the explosion of a shell. The vessel was a schooner rigged steamer, and painted lead color, with four guns on each broadside, which were well distanced two miles from the island, when the boat put to sea. The United States revenue cutter was lying in the harbor at the time, but not having on steam was unable to pursue.

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations.—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.

When a physician tells a woman, suffering from female trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had

FRENCH INTEREST IN CUBAN AFFAIRS

DO NOT BELIEVE UNITED STATES
WANTS ISLAND.

LOOK FOR RECURRENCE

Newspapers Believe "Rival" Factions
Cannot Agree on Permanent
Peace, Although They May Get Together.

Paris, Sept. 17.—Lively interest is manifested here over President Roosevelt's decision to send Secretary of War Taft and Acting Secretary of State Bacon to Cuba, and many of the newspapers jump to the conclusion that this will sound the knell of Cuban independence.

In responsible circles, however, the right of the United States, under the treaty with Cuba, to restore order is recognized, but there is no disposition to impute to the Washington government a desire to seize the occasion to annex the island.

Nevertheless it is thought by some persons that even if the wise counsel of President Roosevelt is followed and the rival factions temporarily bury the hatchet and there will be an early recurrence of the insurrection which will compel ultimately annexation.

The Temps which frequently reflects the views of the foreign office, says that while American commercial interests, in the belief that they are injured by the commercial troubles Cuba has negotiated with other powers, undoubtedly hope the present imbroglio will result in annexation, the position of the government is very reserved.

Faith in Roosevelt.
"President Roosevelt is a man of honor who will keep his word," the Temps says. "He gave liberty to Cuba and will not take the first opportunity to withdraw it. Besides, he is a man of experience and knows what possession of the Philippines cost and continues to cost the United States."

"Cubans as citizens or subjects are not easy to govern. Unless the unexpected happens, it is safe to affirm, therefore, that America does not contemplate laying violent hands on the island, but only intends to safeguard American interests and demonstrate to the Cubans that it will be a matter of hours if it desires to impose its will."

"It probably will require the appearance of American warships to induce the Cubans to accept President Roosevelt's excellent advice."

"But, unfortunately, a settlement of the present difficulties will not be definite, and the Cubans, who during four years have surprised Europe by their prosperous tranquillity will return to their old vice."

"Such relapses are rarely isolated. This is a grave feature of the situation and one we deplore in a people who always have received French sympathy and friendship."

GREAT DAMAGE BY CLOUDBURST

Water Rushes Down Valley of Elk Creek, Destroying Hay and Hogs.

Jackson, Neb., Sept. 17.—At 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning water from a cloudburst in the northwestern part of Dakota county and the eastern part of Dixon county rushed down the valley of Elk creek, sweeping away hundreds of tons of hay, drowning hogs caught in pens, flooding cellars, washing away railroad tracks, and doing other damage, all of which is conservatively estimated at $100,000. The wave of water in the creek when it struck this town was seven feet high.

The Omaha and Great Northern roads both lost considerable track.

Alaska-Yukon Exposition.
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 17.—President James J. Hill and President Howard Elliott, of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads, respectively, send word that each will subscribe for 25,000 shares of the company stock of the Alaska-Yukon Pacific exposition.

Arrest Cotton Dealer

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 17.—Thomas W. Alexander, head of the largest cotton firm in Augusta, who disappeared two months ago, has been arrested in Pittsburgh, Pa., and has agreed to come back to Augusta without regulation papers.

Whaleback Goes Aground

Washburn, Wis., Sept. 17.—The big steel steamer Crescent City, with the whaleback No. 168 in tow, went aground about two miles above this city Sunday morning, within 500 feet of the shore.

Fatally Shoots Painter

Holena, Mont., Sept. 17.—In a pistol duel here Sunday afternoon, chief of police Flannery shot and killed T. P. Purdue, a traveling painter of Kansas City, and was himself shot in the leg.

Find Supply of Bombs

HUNGARIANS LAUD FIRST PRESIDENT

UNVEIL MONUMENT TO GEORGE WASHINGTON.

COLORS ARE BLENDED

Stars and Stripes Intertwined with Emblem of the Country That Paid Tribute to First Executive of America.

Budapest, Sept. 17.—Sunday was George Washington day in Hungary's capital and the entire population from morning until night gave itself up to enthusiasm over the unveiling on a national territory of a monument to the first president of the United States.

The Stars and Stripes and the Hungarian colors intertwined were to be seen everywhere.

In the morning there were special sermons in many of the churches, the preachers calling attention to the importance of the event.

Thirty Thousand Parade.
In the afternoon thousands of persons lined the streets through which passed an imposing parade to the city park, in which the monument stands. Thirty thousand persons were in the park, which was surrounded by many thousands more.

Francis Kossuth, Hungarian minister of commerce and Count Albert Apponyi, minister of worship, represented the independence party at the ceremonies, and were not present in their capacity as government officials.

The attendance included numerous members of the diet, the various municipal officials, Mr. Chester, the American counsel general, 500 Hungarian-Americans, headed by E. T. Kohanyi, of Cleveland, O., and delegates from patriotic societies in all parts of Hungary.

Sing National Hymns.
Prior to the unveiling united choirs sang the Hungarian and then the American national anthem and other hymns.

The monument was unveiled amid scenes of great enthusiasm. Herr Rakovskij, vice president of the chamber of deputies, was the orator of the day. He dwelt at length on Washington's great work for the cause of civilization, not only for the United States but for all the world.

He said the standard set by the father of the American republic had influenced Louis Kossuth, and that by that standard Hungary's greatness would be attained.

Mr. Kohanyi in a speech praised American institutions and freedom. He said Hungarian-Americans were true citizens of the republic, but would always keep up their love for their native country.

Cover Statue with Flowers.
Mayor Bauzy, of Budapest, promised to take good care of the monument, which he said, was splendid evidence of the friendship between the two peoples, and hoped it would last forever.

After other speeches the people paraded past the monument, covering the pedestal with wreaths and floral designs.

At the banquet at night, Herr Bauzy toasted President Roosevelt and Consul General Chester proposed the health of the king of Hungary.

Count Apponyi eulogized the United States and expressed his admiration of Hungarian-Americans for being absolutely loyal to their new home while retaining their love for their fatherland.

Mr. Chester availed himself of the opportunity to state that he only attended the ceremonies and the banquet as a private American citizen, thinking that it was his duty to do so on such an occasion.

REPUBLICS HOLD CONFERENCE

Central American States Meet to Ratify Marblehead Treaty.

San Jose, Costa Rica, Sept. 17.—In conformity with the fourth article of the treaty of peace between Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras, which was signed on board the United States cruiser Marblehead July 20, a peace conference was inaugurated here at noon Saturday by President Gonzalez Viquez.

The object of the conference is the signing of a general treaty of peace, friendship and commerce.

Luis Anderson, Costa Rican minister of foreign affairs, was appointed a delegate to the conference, and Senor Calvo, the Costa Rican minister to the United States was chosen as secretary. The presidents of all the Central American republics were notified of the inauguration of the conference.

TAFT AND BACON ARE OFF FOR CUBA

SECRETARY OF WAR AND SUITE
START ON MISSION.

MAKE EFFORT FOR PEACE

Emissaries Leave Havana for Insurgent Camps to Bring About Cesasation of War Before Arrival of American Agents.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon left Washington on Sunday at 3:45 o'clock over the Atlantic coast line for Tampa, Fla., to embark on a naval vessel there for Havana, in accordance with the instructions of President Roosevelt, to ascertain the exact political situation.

Other members of the party were Frank G. Rockwood, stenographer, to Secretary Taft; Henry Newcomb, private secretary, to Assistant Secretary Bacon; Capt. F. R. McCoy, the president's military aid; F. L. Cairns, surveyor of the port of Manila; Jose M. Macias, a Spanish interpreter from the inland bureau, and two messengers. Mr. Cairns formerly lived in Cuba, his father being a Cuban, and accompanied Secretary Taft at his request, because of his familiarity with Cuban matters. The party is due to arrive at Port Tampa about ten o'clock Monday night.

Effort to Secure Peace

Havana, Sept. 17.—The government is making final strenuous efforts to restore peace in Cuba and thus avoid any kind of American intervention.

The object of these endeavors, it is stated, is that it may be able to say by the time Secretary of War Taft and Acting Secretary of State Bacon arrive that peace already has been secured and that therefore there is no need for the American government's intervention, either to restore peace or insure permanent tranquillity.

Members of the government informed the press that they are making the efforts in accordance with the advice contained in President Roosevelt's letter; that they have no objection to the friendly assistance of the United States in the matter if it becomes necessary, but that they believe they can settle it between the government and the revolutionists without the necessity of any intervention. At least, they say, they are making an attempt to accomplish this end unaided, and with fair prospects of success.

Suspends Operations

This is the latest phase of a rapidly changing situation that developed late Sunday afternoon, when an extraordinary gazette was issued containing a decree signed by President Palma, on the recommendation of Secretary of Public Works Montalvo. The decree follows:

"All campaign operations are suspended and, in consequence, the government forces will act only on the defensive throughout the republic. The secretary of the interior will issue all the necessary orders for the execution of this decree."

Surprised by Decree

The decree caused great surprise, as it was believed to signify a change of heart by the government officials, who have been strongly against taking up peace overtures with the emissaries of the revolutionists.

Sunday's action had its beginning by Gen. Menocal's renewed effort in visiting Secretary Montalvo and urging him to make the strongest possible endeavor to induce President Palma to comply with President Roosevelt's advice and avoid the consequences of intervention by requesting a truce and endeavoring to have the Cubans themselves come to an agreement.

Result of Conference

Secretary Montalvo and Gen. Menocal first visited Jose Miguel Gomez and others of the alleged conspirators in the prison, and found them willing to cooperate in securing peace. The basis of peace was not discussed in any detail, but Secretary Montalvo returned to the palace and urged President Palma to consider the matter.

The president called a conference, which was attended by the ministers, Vice President Mendez Capote, Gen. Freyre Andrade and Senator Dolz. The result of this conference was the issuance of the decree suspending governmental campaign operations.

Confer with Insurgents

After the decree was issued government emissaries were dispatched in automobiles to confer with the revolutionists.

Gen. Menocal, accompanied by Congressman Gobin and Garcia Vela, the youngest son of Calixto Garcia, drove in the direction where Alfredo O. Zayas was encamped with Castillo's forces, not far from Santiago de las Vegas, and others went to Guanajay, which place Sunday afternoon was occupied by a big band of revolutionists under Congressman Campos Marqueti. The latter had Mayor Galles and the 200 volunteers defending the town cooped up in a carcel and surrounded by a swarm of insurgents. The mayor up to evening had defied Campos Marqueti and was still holding out when the peace emissaries arrived. Meanwhile Campos Marqueti was threatening to blow up the carcel with dynamite.

Explosion Kills Seven

Montaucon, France, Sept. 17.—Lightning Sunday exploded the powder magazine at the fort here. Seven persons were killed and many injured.

Practical Sense

It's all right to dream of the great things you are going to do, but don't forget to wake up in time to begin work.

A Good Windmill is a Great Labor Saver

Don't go through another winter breaking your back trying to pump water for your stock. It isn't worth the effort when you can buy a . . .

"FREEMAN SPECIAL" WINDMILL

for the low price we are asking for it. They are made of all steel and are put together to stand the wear and tear of all kinds of weather.

The "Freeman Special" will run with a smaller amount of wind and with less jar to the pump than any other windmill on the market.

We will be glad to give you an estimate.

Is YOUR "I" Always in the PUBLIC EYE?

Egotism used to be defined as "suffering your I to get too much in the public eye."

The censure in this definition is all very appropriate if applied only to people who lead wholly "private lives"—to people quite outside of trade or business activities.

But, to people who "keep store", to people who must find a market for something or other, and whose names are identified with their business, KEEPING THEIR "I'S" IN THE PUBLIC EYE IS NOT EGOTISM—it is FUNDAMENTAL GOOD SENSE.

There was once an adage which said: "Seldom seen, soon forgotten." It was a true adage—true of almost everything, and especially true of NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING as applied to BUSINESS PROSPERITY. A business enterprise grows in sure proportion to the regularity with which it is kept in the public eye and memory.
